4–8 October 2021

INSIEME (ISE-EMH) Workshop

"Jožef Stefan" Institute, Ljubljana, Slovenia

5th October 2021

Conference topics

The Insieme Workshop will be a forum for presenting use cases and exchanging experience among academic and service industry partners on deploying information communication technology supported tools and services for enabling more efficient EMH (Electronic and Mobile Health) systems, as well as stimulating further adoption of such solutions through promotional activities and establishing direct collaboration between academia and industry.

The workshop is an activity of the project ISE-EMH INTERREG V-A ITALIA-SLOVENIA 2014-2020. General public and stakeholders interested in ICT solutions for e-health (EMH) and systems for elderly are invited to the workshop.

The conference will focus on the following topics within the scope of electronic and mobile health:

- Data mining
- Intelligent agents
- Databases and data systems
- Frontend and backend systems
- Support systems for elderly
- EMH android applications or for elderly
- Decision support systems
- Information search
- Sematic web and ontologies
- The impact of EMH on the society

Instruction for authors

The Program Committee calls for papers on the topics of the conference, which can be academic or engineering, and should be accessible to a wide audience. The papers should be between 1 and 4 pages long and should be written in English. Template files including the formatting instructions are available at SUBMIT A PAPER - IS2021 \(ijs.si\). The authors should submit papers by the system EasyChair. Acceptable formats are MS Word and LaTeX. The papers will be reviewed by the members of the Programme Committee. The accepted papers will be published in the conference proceedings.

Programme

The accepted papers will be presented at the Workshop. By default, the presentations will be given in English and can include the demo of the presented system. Time allocated for each presentation will be approximately 15 minutes.

Important dates

29 August 2021: submission deadline
